Davis, E.M.

[Hammonton, NJ]

1929

402 Grove St.
Hammonton. N. J.
3/22/29.

Mr. Howland Wood
American Numismatic Soc.
Broadway at 156th St.
N. Y. C. —

Dear Mr. Wood —

March 7th sent you by Registered Mail two coins - they were received 3/8/29 by a George Nuhan — This information obtained from the "Registered return receipt —

Possibly you have been too busy to reply as yet. but after having waited two who am getting a little anxious —

May be I did not follow instructions properly as advised in "Adventure" —

Knowing that I was asking for free information and the safe return of the coins I want do all in my part to avoid any expense to yourself and any unnecessary annoyance —

Sincerely

E. M. Favor.

AERO VIEW
HAMMONTON
NEW JERSEY

COPYRIGHT-1925- HUGHES & BAILEY- N.Y.

HAMMONTON, in the noted, rich and productive farm section of South New Jersey, is a thriving, hustling city of 8,000 population. It is on the famous White Horse Pike, half way, thirty miles, from Philadelphia to Atlantic City and forty miles from Trenton.

Splendid roads in all directions give easy accessibility to the many nearby cities and towns. Fastest railroad service in the world, via P. R. R. and P. & R. R. R., Philadelphia to Atlantic City, and direct to New York via the C. R. R. of New Jersey.

Superior water supply, up-to-date sewer system, ten miles of paved streets. Gas and electric facilities. Efficient fire protection.

Hammonton is proud of its school system with its seventy-five teachers and fine buildings. Children in outlying districts are taken to high school in free buses.

Hammonton has two well managed banks with ample capital and every facility. Three successful Building and Loan Associations. A live Chamber of Commerce.

Hammonton's industries include extensive fruit farms and poultry raising on a large scale.

Many factories contribute a share of Hammonton's industrial life, including clothing, glass, shoe, canneries, macaroni, cigar factory, lumber mills, steam laundry.

Well stocked stores and markets supply the newest and best goods.

An excellent newspaper gives full and faithful record of local interests in news and advertising.

The climate is unsurpassed for health and comfort. The mild, balmy, air; warm, mellow and rich soil with abundant rainfall produce two and three full crops a year.

A beautiful lake two miles long and one-quarter mile wide nestles in the east part of town.

Published and Copyright 1926 by Hammonton Printing Company, Hammonton, N. J.

March 23, 1929

E. M. Davis
402 Grape Street
Hammonton
New Jersey

Dear Sir:

By this time you have received your coins back. These were returned by registered mail on March 21, the reason for the delay being that the writer was called away suddenly for over a week, and it took several days after this to go through the accumulated correspondence.

Very truly yours,

Curator